Most of the information in this book is produced from the 15th edition of the Senior Citizen Information Handbook. The information is printed by the Franklin County Office of aging and the websites of the entities listed herein. Many thanks for their hard work in assisting the needy in Franklin County, Ohio and Central Ohio.

Dedication

I dedicate this book to help the disabled who live with daily disabilities. I have represented numerous disabled and often homeless individuals. I can only imagine the pain and suffering that the disabled face each day of their lives. I hope that this book helps you find the right services and help that they need.

Table of Contents

Foreword

When a disability prevents someone from engaging in substantial gainful employment, then that person often needs to find alternative ways to provide for their basic needs such as food, clothing, and shelter. While an attorney can help the disabled apply for SSDI/SSI monetary government benefits, the process takes time. During the gap period between applying for benefits and receiving benefits, it is our hope that this resource manual helps the disabled find ways to meet their needs. Additionally, some of the agencies listed in this handbook can provide services related to coping with mental illness and overcoming addictions. Most of the agencies listed in this handbook offer help to the general public, not just to the disabled. Additionally, many partner with other agencies to offer expanded services. Please identify yourself as a person with a disability and identify all of your specific needs when contacting the agencies so that they can better serve you. Furthermore, this handbook was current as of the time of its drafting in early 2014, please check the agencies' websites when possible to obtain the most current information. Public libraries offer free internet access, although printing usually costs money so take a pen and paper to take notes. This handbook does not constitute legal advice, if you need legal advice relating to your SSDI/SSI claims please call an attorney.

Social Security Disability

Frequently Asked Questions About Social Security Disability

What is social security disability?

Social Security Disability is a disability insurance policy sponsored by the federal government. Like all insurance policies, you will only get benefits if your policy is in force. Your policy will be in force if you have worked five out of the last ten years before you became disabled.

Must I be permanently disabled to qualify for Social Security Disability?

No. The Social Security Disability also applies to those who are temporarily disabled. You must show that you have been disabled or will be disabled for a year.

How far back will social security pay?

Social security will pay back one year before the date of application.

Must I show financial need to receive social security disability?

Free or Low Cost Clinics Serving Central Ohio

Free clinics provide primary care services with some specialty care referral. Free clinics usually do not prescribe narcotics, provide prenatal care, TB skin testing, or STD/HIV testing unless specifically mentioned in the listing or website. However, clinics are always adding new services so you should call and ask if they offer the service you need. Additionally, times and locations do change so call and verify the time and location before you go.

MEDICARE

All persons 65 or over who qualify for Social Security benefits are eligible for Medicare Parts A and B. Part A is hospital insurance which you receive as part of your Social Security. Part B is medical insurance that carries a monthly charge and is deducted from your Social Security check if you wish to have it. Part B pays 80% of the allowed costs of most physicians' services, laboratory and radiology, outpatient hospital benefits and other health benefits. Individuals receiving Social Security disability benefits and chronic renal disease benefits are entitled to Medicare beginning the 25th month of disability. You may qualify for Part B if you are not eligible for Social Security benefits. Medicare now offers prescription drug coverage to people eligible for Medicare Part A and/or Part B. To enroll in Medicare, telephone your local Social Security Office at least three months before you reach age 65 (see Social Security). If you have questions about your Medicare claim, contact (800) MEDICARE. For general Medicare questions, contact the Central Ohio Area Agency on Aging at (614) 645-7250 or the Ohio Senior Health Insurance Information Program at (800)686-1578. To apply for the low-income subsidy available for the new Prescription Drug Plans, contact your local Social Security Office. For more information visit www.MyMedicare.gov.

For speakers regarding Medicare information, contact the COAAA at (614) 645-7250 or OSHIIP at (800) 686-1578.
